Venice, July 19.

ON the 11th Inſtant Mr. Burges, His Britannick Majeſty's Reſident with this Republick, had his firſt Audience of the Doge and Senate, and was received with all the Marks of Honour paid to the Reſidents of Crowned Heads.

Madrid, July 22. Sig. Pozobueno, who is appointed his Catholick Majeſty's Miniſter to the Court of Great Britain, having received his Inſtructions, is preparing to begin his Journey in three or four Days. Mr. Schaub ſet out from hence laſt Night for Paris.

Copenhagen, Aug. 3. The King of Denmark had reſolved to make a Turn in Jutland and to return to Colding, where his Miniſters had Orders to meet him: But his Majeſty has put off his Journey, and is gone only to review ſome Troops on this Iſland and Falſter and Laland, and returns the end of next Week. The Lord Carteret is gone with his Majeſty. Letters from Stockholm of the 13th paſt, ſay the King of Sweden was gone to Gaſle to review the Troops there: The Embargo that was laid upon all Merchant Ships in that Port, was taken off; and the Government had ordered a Sum of Money to be paid to the Maſters of thoſe Ships for the time they had been detained.

Hanover, Aug. 6, N. S. His Majeſty continues in perfect Health. The Duke of York arrived here the 3d Inſtant. The King of Pruſſia is expected by the 16th.

Hague, Aug. 6. On Saturday laſt the 3d Inſtant, N. S. about ſix in the Evening, died the Grand Penſionary M. Heinſius, in the 80th Year of his Age. He had diſcharged this Employment near thirty Years, in very difficult Times, and with great Applauſe; and has left behind him the Character of an able and honeſt Miniſter. The States of Holland have been already convened for the 10th Inſtant; but it is believed they will hardly be able to chuſe a new Penſionary in that Aſſembly.

Heinſius, was carried to Delft, to be buried in that Town, where his Family is ſettled, and where he was formerly Penſionary: It was only accompanied by three Coaches, and ſome few Servants of the States, as he had deſired, in a Manner intirely ſuitable to the modeſt Plainneſs with which he had always lived and acted.
